APEX CoVANTAGE AWARDED LEGACY EBOOK PROJECT

HERNDON, VA – January 25, 2012 – Apex CoVantage, a leading content solutions company, has been awarded a large legacy eBook conversion project by a major aggregator of journals as it expands into the book market. The project involves converting, on average, 1,000 books per month. In addition to content transformation services, Apex is providing the customer with state-of-the-art, web-based project tracking and reporting, which greatly increases project management efficiency for this large-scale project.

“Apex is pleased to be partnering with our long-standing client to bring this exciting new service to market,” said Ms. Margaret Boryczka, President of the Content Solutions Division at Apex. “Our established systems and processes will help ensure a rapid start and smooth roll out for this important new offering.”

About Apex CoVantage

Apex CoVantage is a private, employee-owned company that for more than 20 years has helped businesses to develop and execute strategies in the information and knowledge fields. Based in Herndon, Virginia, Apex was a pioneer in the market for off-shore knowledge-based solutions; we now have over 2,500 employees here and abroad. From the beginning, Apex specialized in developing and improving man-machine processes that optimally combined human creativity with machine processing efficiency, sometimes finding transformative solutions leading to quantum gains in efficiency—often well beyond what clients thought possible.
