APEX ENGINEERING TO EXHIBIT AT 27TH ANNUAL ESRI INTERNATIONAL USER CONFERENCE San Diego, CA Event Takes Place June 18-22, 2007

HERNDON, VA – June 6, 2007 - Apex CoVantage, a leading global knowledge process outsourcing (KPO) provider in engineering solutions, announced that it will be exhibiting at the 27th ESRI International User Conference, June 18-22 in San Diego, CA. ESRI designs and develops the world's leading geographic information system (GIS) technology.

As an authorized ESRI business partner, Apex's Engineering Solutions division specializes in the development and delivery of quality engineering and geographic information systems for organizations in the electric, gas, rail, telecommunications, and water utility markets, as well as local government.

"The nature of the services ESRI users require makes this an ideal conference for Apex Engineering. We look forward to meeting with our existing clients, and to the opportunities it presents in discussing potential programs with new clients and showcasing our ever-expanding geographic information systems," said Apex Engineering Solutions Vice President, Greg Retzer.

Apex Engineering will be at Booth 2022 in the San Diego Convention Center, San Diego, CA, beginning with the opening ceremony on Monday morning and closing on Friday morning. All attendees and press are invited to stop by the booth to learn more about the benefits of Apex Engineering Solutions.
