APEX ENGINEERING TO EXHIBIT AT GITA'S 30TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

San Antonio, TX Event Takes Place March 4-7, 2007

HERNDON, VA – March 1, 2007 - Apex CoVantage, a leading global knowledge process outsourcing (KPO) provider in engineering solutions, announced that it will be exhibiting at the Geospatial Information & Technology Association's (GITA) 30th Annual Conference, March 4-7 in San Antonio, TX. GITA's mission is to contribute to a world in which the daily lives of people everywhere are enhanced and enriched by the use of geospatial information and technology.

Apex's Engineering Solutions division specializes in the development and delivery of quality engineering and geospatial data solutions for organizations in the electric, gas, rail, telecommunications, and water utility markets, as well as local government.

"The nature of the services GITA members require makes this an ideal conference for Apex Engineering. We look forward to meeting with our existing clients, and to the opportunities it presents in discussing potential programs with new clients and showcasing our ever-expanding geospatial data management services," said Apex Engineering Solutions Vice President, Greg Retzer.

Apex Engineering will be at Booth 540 in the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center, San Antonio, TX, beginning with the opening ceremony on Monday afternoon and closing on Wednesday afternoon. All attendees and press are invited to stop by the booth to learn more about the benefits of Apex Engineering Solutions.
