APEX PUBLISHING TO EXHIBIT AT AAP'S PROFESSIONAL/SCHOLARLY PUBLISHING (PSP) ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Washington, DC Event Takes Place February 5-7, 2007

HERNDON, VA – January 16, 2007 - Apex CoVantage, a leading global knowledge process outsourcing (KPO) provider in publishing and e-publishing solutions, today announced its plans to exhibit at the Association of American Publishers' Professional/Scholarly Publishing (PSP) Annual Conference, February 5-7 in Washington, DC.

PSP members publish, in print and electronic form, the vast majority of materials produced and used by scholars and professionals in technology, science, medicine, business, law, humanities, the behavioral sciences, and scholarly reference. Apex Publishing will be at the conference to share its solutions for streamlining the publishing process, future-proofing files and optimizing publishers' internal resources, including two customizable publishing solutions: SmartRef™ and TrueXML Workflow™.

"The nature of the products PSP members produce makes this an ideal conference for Apex Publishing. We look forward to the opportunities it presents, including meeting new clients to showcase our ever-expanding publishing services," said Apex Publishing Vice President, Tom O'Brien.

Apex Publishing will be at Booth 13 in the Grand Ballroom of the Renaissance Mayflower Hotel, Washington, DC, during the following exhibit hours: Monday, February 5 from 12:00 noon to 7:00 p.m.; Tuesday, February 6 from 8:00 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.; and Wednesday, February 7 from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Apex invites attendees and press to stop by the booth to learn more about the benefits of the company's publishing solutions.
