GLOBAL OUTSOURCING EXECUTIVE JOINS APEX'S LEADERSHIP TEAM

Peter Taylor Named Senior Vice President of Sales

HERNDON, VA – July 26, 2007 - Apex CoVantage, a leading knowledge process outsourcing (KPO) company, announced today the addition of Mr. Peter Taylor as Senior Vice President of Sales. In this capacity, Mr. Taylor will be responsible for the overall growth of Apex. His initial focus will be on diversifying and expanding the Publishing division's market reach and penetration.

With 26 years of sales, management and consulting experience, Mr. Taylor is an expert in global BPO sales leadership, having developed and implemented world-class processes, systems and best practices. Prior to joining Apex, he served as President North America for NDS InfoServ where he was responsible for expanding its sales focus into new lines of business which complemented the company's global service delivery operations. Previously, Mr. Taylor was Vice President of Sales for ACS where he managed global large-scale complex BPO pursuits, including Financial Services. From 1999-2003, he served as Vice President of BPLogic, a professional consulting firm with a focus on business process outsourcing. From 1991-1999, he held the position of President of Medical Technology Solutions, Inc., a healthcare firm specializing in provider/payer outsourcing, and strategic consulting.

"Peter is a strong addition to Apex's leadership team. Given his extensive experience in the KPO industry, I am confident that under his leadership Apex will see a surge in its already fast-growth mode," noted Dr. Shashikant Gupta, President of Apex CoVantage.

"I'm excited to be doing what I enjoy most and that's leading the sales organization in a world-class company," said Mr. Taylor. "Apex is building on its heritage and past successes in the Publishing market and I'm excited by the opportunity to expand the sales effort into new vertical markets. In basic terms, our vision is to be a leader of the global, integrated BPO and KPO services market. The capabilities we've built are in place today and are the best in the market. I've never seen a more exciting time in our history."
