GLOBAL OUTSOURCING EXECUTIVE JOINS APEX'S LEADERSHIP TEAM

John Schuetzle Named President, Content Solutions

HERNDON, VA – November 11, 2008 - Apex CoVantage, a leading knowledge process outsourcing (KPO) company, announced the addition of Mr. John Schuetzle as President, Content Solutions. In his new position, he will be responsible for ensuring the growth, profitability, and long-term health of the CNS division. Mr. Schuetzle will accelerate Apex's expansion into new markets, increase penetration into existing markets and diversify the division's product offerings.

"We are pleased to have someone of John's caliber and experience leading the Content Solutions division," said Margaret Boryczka, Executive Vice President of Apex CoVantage. "As a forward-thinking executive with a proven track record, John will provide dynamic leadership to a great team and we are very pleased to welcome him to Apex."

Mr. Schuetzle brings 20 years of international experience in financial services and technology outsourcing. Since 2004, as Senior Vice President for General Electric Fleet Services, he held positions leading the services product lines for GE's domestic outsourced fleet management business, and later led the servicing of global fleet management customers and prospects across 19 countries and 6 business units. From 2001 to 2004 as Vice President and Chief Information Officer for GE Money Mexico, Mr. Schuetzle developed and executed IT strategy and managed software development and systems operations. Prior to 2001, he has held a variety of marketing, IT, operations, finance and general management leadership roles with First Data, US Bancorp and the FDIC. He holds a BA degree in Economics from Gustavus Adolphus College, and MBA in Finance from Indiana University and is a certified Six Sigma BlackBelt.

"I am honored at being named the president of Apex Content Solutions," said John Schuetzle. "This division is recognized for its commitment to the customers it serves and for providing the most advanced products and features currently available. I welcome the opportunity to continue to drive the development and execution of innovative solutions and services in the global content marketplace and to launch new products by matching technology to customers' business needs."
